Andhra-Odisha Border:In a fresh development that has raised security concerns in the tribal belts, a Maoist spokesperson reportedly issued a public warning through a pamphlet circulated in interior villages of the Andhra–Odisha Border (AOB) zone.

The statement condemned recent political visits to tribal areas, alleging that they were being used to grab forest lands under the guise of development.

“If these politicians continue to cheat the tribal people and sell our lands to corporates, they will be taught a lesson in their own language,” the pamphlet read, signed by the AOB Special Zonal Committee of CPI (Maoist).

The message also warned local contractors and political leaders to stay away from government-backed mining projects, threatening “armed consequences” if they ignored the warning.
